Subject: Re: Your E-mail to CoA

Bernie Haan was 'forced' by Charlie Ergen to donate to a Democratic candidate and/or party in 2009/2010 - could be Colorado or National - not sure. And was 'encouraged' to attend Democrat functions/fundraisers. He is not the only C-level exec that this happened to. I don't think there are specific meetings or dates that would be relevant other than 2009/2010...

forced and encouraged = you still have your job and Charlie did not care whether or not they wanted to donate or agreed with who/what they were donating to.

Contribution Limits for 2009-10

Donors	Recipients				Special Limits
	Candidate Committee	PAC ¹	State, District and Local Party Committee ²	National Party Committee ³
Individual	$2,400* per election ⁴	$5,000 per year	$10,000 per year combined limit	$30,400* per year	Biennial limit of $115,500* ($45,600 to all candidates and $69,900 ⁵ to all PACs and parties)
State, District and Local Party Committee	$5,000 per election combined limit	$5,000 per year combined limit	Unlimited transfers to other party committees
National Party Committee	$5,000 per election	$5,000 per year	Unlimited transfers to other party committees		$42,600* to Senate candidate per campaign ⁶
PAC Multicandidate ⁷	$5,000 per election	$5,000 per year	$5,000 per year combined limit	$15,000 per year
PAC Not Multicandidate	$2,400* per election ⁸	$5,000 per year	$10,000 per year combined limit	$30,400* per year

* These limits are indexed for inflation in odd-numbered years.

¹ These limits apply both to separate segregated funds (SSFs) and political action committees (PACs). Affiliated committees share the same set of limits on contributions made and received.

² A state party committee shares its limits with local and district party committees in that state unless a local or district committee's independence can be demonstrated. These limits apply to multicandidate committees only.

³ A party's national committee, Senate campaign committee and House campaign committee are each considered national party committees, and each have separate limits, except with respect to Senate candidates — see Special Limits column.

⁴ Each of the following is considered a separate election with a separate limit: primary election, caucus or convention with the authority to nominate, general election, runoff election and special election.

⁵ No more than $45,600 of this amount may be contributed to state and local parties and PACs.

⁶ This limit is shared by the national committee and the Senate campaign committee.

⁷ A multicandidate committee is a political committee that has been registered for at least six months, has received contributions from more than 50 contributors and — with the exception of a state party committee — has made contributions to at least five federal candidates.

⁸ A federal candidate's authorized committee(s) may contribute no more than $2,000 per election to another federal candidate's authorized committee(s). 2 U.S.C. §432(e)(3)(B) and 11CFR 102.12(c)(2).
