Dear [REDACTED]:

I am responding to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated March 27, 2012, that we received on April 19, 2012.

You asked for the following documents from the time period of January 1, 2009 to the present:

- All documents between the President or White House staff and the IRS, its staff, or other relevant employees concerning a request of for tax records under §6103(g)(1)
- All documents referring or relating to requests by the President or White House staff for copies of tax returns or tax return information made to the IRS or its employees and any subsequent response by the IRS or its employees
  1. For all documents responsive to this request, include all records referring or relating to the forwarding of Presidential requests to the Director of the Office of Governmental Liaison and Disclosure
- All documents referring or relating to reports filed by the President, or his agents, with the Joint Committee on Taxation at the U.S. Congress concerning such reports referring to or relating to whether the President's reports accurately disclosed:
  1. The name and address of the taxpayer whose return or return information is to be disclosed
  2. The kind of return or return information which is to be disclosed
  3. The taxable period or periods covered by such return or return information
  4. The specific reason why the inspection or disclosure is requested
- All documents referring or relating to determinations by the Joint Committee on Taxation that the disclosure of requests pursuant to IRC §6103(g)(1) would be in the national interest

In response to the first two items in your request, IRC 6103(g)(1) allows the IRS to disclose return and return information of any taxpayer upon written request by the President. We are denying your request to access this information. FOIA exemption (b)(3) requires us to withhold information that is specifically exempted from disclosure by another law. The law supporting this exemption is Title 26 United States Code section 6103(a).

The remaining two items of your request are not records of the IRS. This information is maintained by the Joint Committee on Taxation. The Joint Committee on Taxation can be contacted at the following address and telephone number:

The Joint Committee on Taxation
1625 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, DC. 20515
Main Office: (202) 225-3621

I have enclosed Notice 393 explaining your appeal rights.

If you have any questions please call Tax Law Specialist Janice Rudolph, ID # 0218169, at (202) 283-7388 or write to: Internal Revenue Service, HQ Disclosure, 2980 Brandywine Road, Stop 211, Chamblee, GA 30341. Please refer to case number F12111-0031.

Sincerely,

Appeal Rights

You may file an appeal with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) within 35 days after we (1) deny you access to a record in whole or in part; (2) have made an adverse determination as to your category as a requester; (3) deny your request for a fee waiver or reduction; or (4) have advised you that no records responsive to your request exist. You may file an appeal within 10 days when a request for expedited processing has been denied.

Your appeal must be in writing, must be signed by you, and must contain:

Your name and address,
Description of the requested records,
Date of the request (and a copy, if possible),
Identity of the office and contact on the response letter, and
Date of the letter denying the request (and a copy, if possible)

Mail your appeal to:     IRS Appeals

Judicial Review

If we deny your appeal, or do not address an issue raised in your appeal within 20 days (excluding Saturdays, Sundays, or legal public holidays) after the date we receive your appeal, you may file a complaint in United States District Court in the district in which (1) you reside; (2) your principal place of business is located; (3) the records are located; or (4) the District of Columbia. A complaint may be filed within 10 days (excluding Saturdays, Sundays, or legal public holidays) after the date we receive your appeal if your appeal is from an adverse determination of a request for expedited processing. If you choose to file suit before receipt of a final determination by the Appeals office, the administrative appeals process may cease.

The rule for effecting service of judicial process upon the Internal Revenue Service is set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(i). In addition to service upon the United States, as set forth in Rule 4(i)(1), service must be made upon the Internal Revenue Service by registered or certified mail as set forth in Rule 4(i)(2)(A).

The address of the Internal Revenue Service is: Internal Revenue Service, Attention CC:PA, 1111 Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20224.

Exemptions

The Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552, does not apply to matters that are:

(b)(1) • specifically authorized under criteria established by an Executive order to be kept secret in the interest of national defense or foreign policy and are in fact properly classified under such executive order,

(b)(2) • related solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of an agency,

(b)(3) • specifically exempted from disclosure by statute (other than section 552b of this title), provided that the statute:

(A) requires that the matters be withheld from the public in such a manner as to leave no discretion on the issue, or

(B) establishes particular criteria for withholding or refers to particular types of matters to be withheld.

Note: Internal Revenue Code sections 6103 and 6105 are statutes which qualify for exemption 3 treatment. Section 6103 protects the confidentiality of tax returns and information pertaining to a taxpayer collected by the IRS. Section 6105 protects information obtained from a foreign country under a tax treaty.

- (b)(4) • trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person and privileged or confidential,
  - (b)(5) • inter-agency or intra-agency memorandums or letters which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency,
  - (b)(6) • personnel and medical files and similar files the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy,
  - (b)(7) • records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, but only to the extent that the production of such law enforcement records or information:
    - (A) could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings,
    - (B) would deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or an impartial adjudication,
    - (C) could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy,
    - (D) could reasonably be expected to disclose the identity of a confidential source, including a State, local or foreign agency or authority or any private institution which furnished information on a confidential basis, and, in the case of a record or information compiled by a criminal law enforcement authority in the course of a criminal investigation or by an agency conducting a lawful national security intelligence investigation, information furnished by a confidential source,
    - (E) would disclose techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or would disclose guidelines for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions if such disclosure could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law, or
    - (F) could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any individual.
  - (b)(8) • contained in or related to examination, operating, or condition reports prepared by, on behalf of, or for the use of an agency responsible for the regulation or supervision of financial institutions, or
  - (b)(9) • geological and geophysical information and data, including maps, concerning wells.
