Dear Mr. Meyers:

This letter responds to your letter dated November 29, 2012, in which you alleged that AARP, Inc. is in violation of various IRS regulations governing tax-exempt organizations.

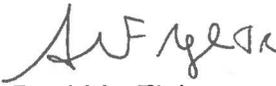

The Internal Revenue Code includes taxpayer privacy provisions enacted by the Congress to protect the privacy of tax returns and tax return information of all taxpayers. Therefore, I cannot comment on what action, if any, we may take on the information you provided.

However, I can tell you that we maintain an ongoing examination program to ensure exempt organizations continue to meet the requirements for tax-exempt status. Whenever we receive information about an organization that raises questions about its continued exempt status or compliance with the tax laws, we forward the information to our Dallas office to determine if it warrants an examination or other action. If you have additional information about this exempt organization that you want to submit for our consideration, please send it to:

IRS – EO Classification
1100 Commerce Street
MC 4910 DAL
Dallas, TX 75242

I hope this information is helpful. If you have any questions, please contact Andrew Beckwith at (202) 283-9461.

Sincerely,

David L. Fish
