Dear Mr. Mulvey:

I am responding to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated May 20, 2016 that we received on May 24, 2016.

We are unable to send the information you requested by June 22, 2016, which is the 20 business-day period allowed by law. I apologize for any inconvenience this delay may cause. We have extended the response date to September 29, 2016 when we believe we can provide a final response.

You do not need to reply to this letter if you agree to this extension. You may wish to consider limiting the scope of your request so that we can process it more quickly. If you want to limit your request, please contact the individual named below. If we subsequently deny your request, you still have the right to file an administrative appeal.

You may file suit if you do not agree to an extension beyond the statutory period. Your suit may be filed in the U.S. District Court:

- Where you reside or have your principal place of business
- Where the records are located, or
- In the District of Columbia

You may file suit after June 22, 2016. Your complaint will be treated according to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure applicable to actions against an agency of the United States. These procedures require that the IRS be notified of the pending suit through service of process, which should be directed to:
