NOTES AND ORDERS

As the parties agreed, the government will dismiss without prejudice D-Link Corporation. Counsel for D-Link Systems, Inc. will accept service of discovery requests on behalf of D-Link Corporation, who will respond as if it were a party. D-Link Corporation's motion to dismiss and discovery dispute letter, Dkt. Nos. 50-51, are denied as moot.

The parties have until Thursday, May 18, 2017, to file a stipulated protective order and order re ESI. In the absence of a stipulation, the Court will enter the Northern District's Model Protective Order and ESI Order for Standard Litigation.

Depositions of non-English speaking deponents may run for 10.5 hours to account for translation issues.

A scheduling order will issue.
